It’s a sunny evening on Jaffa’s main street and we’re in a busy restaurant called the Old City. The place is packed with local hipsters and there are queues of people waiting to get in. The food is amazing, with fresh ingredients, and the atmosphere is lively and buzzy.

The Old City is a great place to stay for those who want to explore the ancient city of Jaffa. The small streets are filled with shops and cafes, and there are plenty of places to eat.

The view from the terrace of the Old City Hotel is stunning, with a view over the sea and the Old City walls. It’s a great place to relax and unwind.

The Old City Hotel is a great base for exploring the ancient city of Jaffa and the surrounding area.
